As such, IAR may sell securities through LSF and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of such transactions. IAR may also receive other compensation such as mutual fund 12b-1 fees and variable annuity trails from product sponsors. Therefore, the IAR has a financial incentive to recommend securities based on the compensation to be received rather than on the client’s needs. To the extent client does elect to purchase insurance through IAR, disclosure is made as to the nature of the relationship, services and any compensation to be received by the registered representative at the time of the transaction.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Cody Jochim may receive cash and non-cash compensation from certain third party product sponsors as permitted by industry rules. For example, product sponsors and other companies may reimburse IAR up to 100% of the cost of due diligence, training and education/joint marketing meetings. In addition, sales by IARs may qualify them for additional compensation that may include support for their business activities, attendance at seminar, conferences and entertainment.

Cody Jochim will also receive compensation from third party investment advisors for referring client accounts to the third party for account management. The third party will pay the IAR a solicitation fee for the referral. The IAR may also serve as the registered representative of record on the assets managed by the third party investment advisor. When this is the case, the IAR will receive normal and customary compensation (e.g., commissions, 12b-1 fees, trails) for the purchase of the investments.
