Item 4: Other Business Activities

The IAR is engaged in the following non-investment-related business activities:

Patricia Monilaws is an administrative secretary for Red River Valley Estate Planning Council. Patricia Monilaws is a clerk/treasurer for the Wheatland, ND township. Patricia Monilaws is also an underwriting and operations director for Halvorson Company Inc, aka Calibrate Wealth Partners, a minority owner of Halvorson Investments, and co-owner of Threads Boutique, LLC.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

Patricia Monilaws may receive cash and non-cash compensation from certain third-party product sponsors as permitted by industry rules. For example, product sponsors and other companies may reimburse IAR up to 100% of the cost of due diligence, training, and education/joint marketing meetings. In addition, sales by IARs may qualify them for additional compensation, including support for their business activities, attendance at seminars, and entertainment.

Patricia Monilaws will also receive compensation from third-party investment advisors for referring client accounts to the third party for account management. The third-party will pay the IAR a solicitation fee for the referral. The IAR may also serve as the registered representative of record on the assets managed by the third-party investment advisor. When this is the case, the IAR will receive normal and customary compensation (e.g., commissions, 12b-1 fees, trails) for the purchase of the investments. This compensation is in addition to the referral fee paid by the third-party advisor.

Patricia Monilaws has a financial industry affiliated business as an insurance agent. These practices represent conflicts of interest because they give the IAR an incentive to recommend products based on the commission amount received. This conflict is mitigated by disclosures, procedures, and the firm's Fiduciary obligation to place the client's interest first, and clients are not required to purchase any products. Clients have the option to purchase these products through another insurance agent of their choosing.
